

Virtual Employer Event:
Hiring International Students &
Navigating the H-1B Visa Process
Tuesday, March 29 | 2:00-3:00 p.m. (via Zoom)

Who can attend: Employers, industry associations, chambers, and workforce development professionals in Northeastern Minnesota.

Purpose: The purpose of this virtual event is to walk through the H-1B visa processes that make international students eligible for employment, highlighting local information, and provide legal expertise for employers who may be looking to tap into these local talent pools.

Presenter: Marissa Hill-Dongre, University of Minnesota

Marissa Hill-Dongre is the Director of the University of Minnesota's Immigration Response Team, and an Assistant Director of the International Student and Scholar Services office at the University's Twin Cities campus. Marissa's work at the University covers a wide range of immigration-related issues, from international student and faculty casework, to providing resources and support for undocumented and DACA students on campus. Prior to working at the University of Minnesota, Marissa practiced immigration law at Centro Legal and worked as an Education Coordinator at the Immigrant Law Center of Minnesota.
